

Gregorius Yoseph Laba, S.H.

Email: gregoriusyoseph@ijrs.or.id

Linkedin: Gregorius Yoseph Laba

Short Profile

Gregorius Yoseph Laba, S.H., commonly known as Yoris, holds a bachelor's degree in Law from the Indonesia Jentera School of Law. Currently serving as a researcher at IJRS, Yoris has a strong interest in good governance and judicial reform. He is currently involved in several programs, including institutional studies on endowment funds for the recovery of crime victims, research on environmental restoration funds, research on non-governmental trust funds, as well as advocacy and implementation of the Open Government Partnership (OGP) action plan in Indonesia.

Together with the IJRS team, he has completed several key programs, including:

1. Study on Policy Recommendations for Strengthening Institutional Governance in the Legal Sector within the 2025-2029 National Medium-Term Development Plan (RPJMN);
2. Formulation of the 2025-2029 Strategic Plan for the National Commission on Human Rights (Komnas HAM);
3. Drafting Policy Paper on Strengthening Human Resources within the Attorney General's Office;
4. Research and Legal Empowerment Activities on Strengthening Public Access to Justice;
5. Assessment of the 2023 Criminal Code (KUHP) against Internal Regulations of Law Enforcement Agencies regarding Restorative Justice;
6. Study on the Implementation of Victim Trust Fund Governance at the Witness and Victim Protection Agency (LPSK);
7. Translation of the Dutch Code of Criminal Procedure (Wetboek van Strafvordering);
8. Drafting of the Bill on Anti-Discrimination;
9. Drafting of Government Regulations and Urgency Paper regarding the Collection of Donations;
10. Drafting of the Presidential Regulation on Open Government Indonesia; and
11. Formulation of Prosecutor Regulations regarding the Prosecutor's Code of Conduct and the Procedures for Examining Violations of the Prosecutor's Code of Conduct.

Current Position

Researcher

Education

1. Bachelor of Law from Indonesia Jentera School of Law (graduated in 2023)

Work Experiences

1. Intern as research assistant at Dani Darussalam Tax Center (2022)
2. Junior Researcher at Yayasan Plan International Indonesia (2022-2023)

Ongoing IJRS Programs

1. Institutional Study on Endowment Funds for the Recovery of Victims of Crime;
2. Research on Environmental Restoration Funds;
3. Open Government Partnership and the Implementation of the Open Government Indonesia Action Plan (RAN OGI) VIII;
4. Research on Trust Fund in the Non-Governmental Sector;
5. Research on Unfair Trial on the Death Penalty in Narcotics Cases;
6. Drafting of the Bill on Narcotics and Psychotropic;

Past IJRS's Programs

1. Study on Policy Recommendations for Strengthening Institutional Governance in the Legal Sector within the 2025-2029 National Medium-Term Development Plan (RPJMN);
2. Formulation of the 2025-2029 Strategic Plan for the National Commission on Human Rights (Komnas HAM);
3. Drafting Policy Paper on Strengthening Human Resources within the Attorney General's Office;
4. Research and Legal Empowerment Activities on Strengthening Public Access to Justice;
5. Assessment of the 2023 Criminal Code (KUHP) against Internal Regulations of Law Enforcement Agencies regarding Restorative Justice;
6. Study on the Implementation of Victim Trust Fund Governance at the Witness and Victim Protection Agency (LPSK);
7. Translation of the Dutch Code of Criminal Procedure (Wetboek van Strafvordering);
8. Drafting of the Bill on Anti-Discrimination;
9. Drafting of Government Regulations and Urgency Paper regarding the Collection of Donations;
10. Drafting of the Presidential Regulation on Open Government Indonesia; and
11. Formulation of Prosecutor Regulations regarding the Prosecutor's Code of Conduct and the Procedures for Examining Violations of the Prosecutor's Code of Conduct.

Achievements

1. Involved in High-Level Financing Conference of Education Cannot Wait 2023;
2. Involved in United Nations Transforming Education Summit 2022;
3. Member of Global Youth Panel for Education in Emergencies Plan International; and

4. 1st Winner of Documentary Film Competition at University of Toronto Sustainability Film Festival 2023.